JOHCM RECRUITS ANDREW PARRY AS HEAD OF INVESTMENTS

Active asset manager J O Hambro Capital Management (JOHCM) is pleased to announce the appointment of Andrew Parry as Head of Investments and member of the Executive team. Parry will provide investment oversight to JOHCM's 14 investment teams including Regnan, JOHCM's Responsible Investment arm, as well as the trading functions based in London, New York and Singapore.

Parry has over 30 years of asset management experience with a focus on equities, investment strategy, business development, leadership and strategic client relationships. The last decade has seen Parry develop a growing interest and in-depth knowledge of the sustainable impact space.

Parry most recently served as Head of Sustainable Investing at Newton Investment Management, where he went beyond ESG to explore how sustainable investing can support a transition to a more resilient and equitable system while encouraging a forward looking, long-term approach to investing. Prior to this, Parry was at Hermes Investment Management for 13 years where he was Head of Sustainable Investing. While at Hermes, Parry formed the Impact Opportunities team with Tim Crockford, who now heads up the Equity Impact Solutions team here at Regnan.

Alexandra Altinger, JOHCM's CEO of UK, Europe and Asia, said: "We're delighted to be welcoming Andrew to the group. Andrew is a respected thought leader in responsible investment and his expertise will add tremendous strength to our investment capabilities, whilst driving product innovation and helping us to build our solutions capabilities for our institutional clients."

Parry will join JOHCM in mid-February 2022 and will be based in London.
