JOHCM HIRES NICO JACKSON AS SENIOR ANALYST ON CONTINENTAL EUROPEAN FUND

Active asset manager J O Hambro Capital Management (JOHCM) announces the appointment of Nico Jackson as Senior Analyst on the JOHCM Continental European Fund, working with Senior Fund Manager Paul Wild.

Jackson joined JOHCM in August having previously served as a Senior Analyst and Portfolio Manager at Geneva-based asset manager Jabre Capital Partners, where he worked on European and US equity long/short investment strategies. Prior to Jabre, he served as a Director, European Equity Sales at Deutsche Bank and also worked in European equity sales for Bear Stearns.

Paul Wild said: "Nico is an experienced European equity investor who can combine top-down macro-driven analysis with a fundamental approach to stock selection, making him an ideal appointment for the Fund."

Wild has managed the £1.1 billion JOHCM Continental European Fund since 2007. The Fund has a core investment style with a focus on European large and mid-cap stocks.
